

IWRA MEMBERSHIP LEAFLET

About Ireland's Wildlife Rehabilitators Association

IWRA is a membership organisation of experienced licenced rehabilitators, volunteers, fosterers and veterinary professionals undertaking wildlife rehabilitation in Ireland. Our goal is to promote standardisation and best practice when caring for sick, injured and orphaned wildlife. We aim to advocate on behalf of licensed rehabilitators and provide a platform to advance the education of these individuals, we also aim to provide a support network of experts who work together towards the common goal of rescuing, rehabilitating and releasing injured, sick or orphaned wildlife.

Purpose for public

Provide a list of experienced and licensed rehabilitators and veterinary professionals in the Republic of Ireland that can be contacted with queries about wildlife casualties in your area.

Membership

Full members (licensed rehabilitators & veterinary practitioners).

Foster members (licensed fosterers).

Volunteer members

Membership Benefits (2022):

- Access to private member area that provides wildlife information, educational tutorials, research information, IWRA events, IWRA expertise and support.
- Access to a community and support network of experienced people to help develop and maintain best practice in rehabilitation and promote standardisation of care of patients and provide a shared knowledge platform.
- You will receive our annual newsletter.
- Access to private platform for licensed rehabbers, to discuss unusual cases and for giving and receiving advice. This will be for non-critical cases.
- Licensed rehabilitators will be published on the website to increase exposure and donation opportunities.

Long term membership benefits (5-year plan):

- Discounts on educational courses for members and discounts on materials and equipment for rehabilitation.
- Scope to expand IWRA into a charitable organisation capable for supporting rehabbers in a limited financial capacity.

Becoming a member:

Complete and sign the documents in the membership pack which includes the IWRA code of conduct, NDA agreement and membership application form.

Successful applicants will receive an email confirmation, membership payment details and log-in details to members area on the website in due course.

For queries, please contact us by email on: iwra.contact@gmail.com

- All membership types – €30.00

Paying your membership: Membership is renewed annually on the 1st March *

 PLEASE NOTE Membership runs for one year and will renew by application yearly from March 1st each year. Failure to renew membership by 30th April will result in membership being temporarily removed from the IWRA website and reinstated when renewed.*

Are you a Wildlife Rehabilitator or Wildlife Volunteer?

We are sniffing out the wonderful rehabbers and volunteers in Ireland to become IWRA members!!!!